

Tubilant Jaipur Sightseeing Tour Package For 2 D / 1 N

Overview

A vibrant evening in Chokhi Dhani that follows the visit to the Birla Temple includes this kit. A pristine panorama of the Rajasthani culture, food and customs is Chokhi Dhani. Dance and taste the savouries like Dal Bati Churma, Kachori and Laal Maans to the tunes of kalbelia and ghoomar; take the camel ride or an elephant safari and the amusement rides can also be enjoyed by children. Since no trip to Jaipur without visiting Chokhi Dhani is complete, it is fair to say that it is the Pink City's heart and soul.

In this Jaipur sightseeing trip, we also have for you an astonishing archaeological bagthat has wonders to unfold. There are locations like Nahargarh Fort, Amber Fort, Hawa mahal, etc. in your scheduled itinerary. To solve and enchanting opinions to witness, these palaces give you unique mysteries. Snap the sunset with the wall of the Amber fort or a dusk view from the Nahargarh Fort, it's all magical.

Daywise Itinerary

Day 1 Jaipur: Arrival and sightseeing

Ghani Khamma! Welcome to Jaipur. Let's begin with the tour.

After checking in, you can visit one of the world's oldest temples, the Birla Temple, followed by Nahargarh Fort. It is said that this fort provides the best sunset views in the area. Then you go to Chokhi Dhani for a vibrant evening where you can see the crowds, traditional cuisine, dance and music, and the festivities of Rajasthan. For a nice overnight stay, you then proceed back to your hotel.

Sightseeing/Transfer Activities

📍 Anokhi Museum, Jaipur

🕒 Duration : 10:30 AM

The Anokhi Museum of Hand Printing is a private museum located in Amber, Rajasthan dedicated to the art of hand-block printing. Opened in 2005, the museum is an initiative of the founders of Anokhi, an Indian retail brand of block-printed clothes.

🕒 Timings(Opening hours): All Days Of The Week 🗓 Close Day: 05:00 PM

📍 Panna Meena Kund, Jaipur

🕒 Duration : 07:00 AM

This square-shaped stepwell is one of the best places to visit in Jaipur in 2 days owing to its spellbinding beauty and unique design. In most stairwells, the stairs are simple and plain, but here you can see a uniquely symmetrical stairwell that follows a zigzag pattern on the sides of the Kund. The sole purpose of building this Baori was to supply water to the locals for drinking as well as crop irrigation.

🕒 Timings(Opening hours): All Days Of The Week 🗓 Close Day: 06:00 PM

📍 Jaigarh Fort, Jaipur

🕒 Duration : 09:00 AM

Nestled atop the Cheel ka Teela or the Hill of Eagles, Jaigarh Fort is one of the most fascinating places to visit in Jaipur. The majestic fort boasts of lavish palaces with courtrooms, triple arch gateways, temples, gardens, armory chamber, and a central watch tower that offers brilliant views of the surrounding landscape. The main attraction of this fort is the Jaivana cannon. It was once the largest cannon on wheels in the whole world. Even today, it stands with pride inside the Jaigarh Fort.

➖ Exclusion

Entry Fee: ₹ 35 (Indians); ₹ 85 (Foreign Nationals)

🕒 Timings(Opening hours): All Days Of The Week 🗓 Close Day: 04:30 PM

📍 Sagar Lake Amer, Jaipur

🕒 Duration : 08:00 AM

Sagar Lake in Amer is a hidden gem, especially during the rainy season. The lake comes alive with lush greenery all around, and the water level rises, creating a serene and picturesque setting. It's the perfect spot to relax and enjoy nature's beauty. The views are stunning, and the atmosphere is peaceful—ideal for a quiet getaway or a refreshing break from the city. If you're visiting Amer during the monsoon, Sagar Lake is a must-see!

 Timings(Opening hours): All Days Of The Week  Close Day: 10:00 PM

 Jal Mahal, Jaipur

 Duration : 06:00 AM

A grand five-storied palace situated in the middle of the Man Sagar Lake, Jal Mahal is another gem in the city of Jaipur. But four of these stories remain under the water when the lake is full. You can see only the top story above the water, which gives the impression that the palace floating on the lake. The palace exhibits the Rajput style of architecture. It was once a duck-hunting retreat for the king of Jaipur. At present, entry to the Jal Mahal is restricted for the visitors.

 Timings(Opening hours): All Days Of The Week  Close Day: 06:00 PM

 Amer Fort, Jaipur

 Duration : 10:00 AM

A sight-seeing trip of Jaipur can't be deemed complete without a visit to the spectacular Amer Fort and Palace. The most opulent among all the forts in Jaipur, Amer Fort embodies architectural brilliance and royal splendor. The lavish palace inside the fort is laid on four levels. Among the major attractions of the fort is the Sheesh Mahal or the Palace of Mirrors. This spectacular building is ornamented with a mosaic of sparkling mirrors and glass inlaid all along the walls and the ceiling.

 Exclusion

Entry Fee: ₹ 100 (Indians); ₹ 550 (Foreign Nationals)

 Timings(Opening hours): All Days Of The Week  Close Day: 05:00 PM

 Nahargarh Fort, Jaipur

 Duration : 10:00 AM

Nahargarh Fort has been standing guard over the city of Jaipur for almost three hundred years now. It was once a part of Jaipur's incredible defense ring, along with the Jaigarh Fort and the Amer Fort. The royal family of Jaipur used this fort as a hunting retreat. The fortification walls of Nahargarh fort extended those of the Jaigarh Fort, thus connecting the two forts. A visit to Nahargarh will also allow you to enjoy wonderful views of Jaipur city.

Exclusion

Entry Fee: ₹ 50 (Indians); ₹ 200 (Foreign Nationals)

Timings(Opening hours): All Days Of The Week Close Day: 05:30 PM

City  Jaipur

Day 2

Rajasthani Block Printing and Departures

Witness the traditional method of printing blocks in Bagru or Sanganer towns

Before going home, we have to discover the typical Rajasthani block printing in the cities or Bagru or Sanganer on the final day of your Jaipur sightseeing package. You will enjoy a bit of shopping here as well. After that, you pack up with a bagful of memories in the evening before going off.

Sightseeing/Transfer Activities

 Albert Hall Museum, Jaipur

 Duration : 09:00 AM

Albert Hall Museum is not just the oldest museum of Rajasthan; it is a fascinating place that opens up a corridor into Jaipur's rich history and heritage. The hall that houses the museum is an impressive structure in itself. Functioning as the State Museum of Rajasthan, the place showcases an interesting collection of artifacts, including sculptures, paintings, crystal works, ivory items, carpets, metal items, and jewelry. One of the highlight exhibits of this museum is an Egyptian mummy, which

Exclusion

Entry Fee: ₹ 20 (Indians); ₹ 150 (Foreign Nationals)

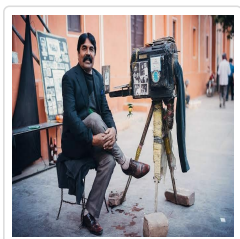

Timings(Opening hours): 05:00 PM to 07:00 PM Closed Close Day: 10:00 PM

 Teekam Chand Photo Exp., Jaipur

 Duration : 10:00 AM

"The Street Photographer Tikam Chand and his Legacy History Of Mintue Camera 1860's Teekam Chand , a street photographer in Jaipur, uses an ancient wooden camera weighing no less than 25 kilos to make photographs of passer - bys. This old camera has been a part of his family for more than 162 years. Tikam Chand's grandfather, who they refer to as Pahari Master, used to be an official photographer of Jaipur in the 19th century.

Timings(Opening hours): All Days Of The Week Close Day: 10:00 PM

 Hawamahal

📍 Johari Bazaar/Bapu Bazaar, Jaipur

🕒 Duration : 10:00 AM

Johari (meaning jewellery) and Bazar (meaning market) is a jewellery market in Jaipur situated near the pink sandstone facade of Hawa Mahal. The market is Jai Singh's entrepreneurial dream, of having an urban centre with rectangular blocks and symmetrical shop fronts.

Bapu Bazar, located in the heart of Jaipur City is a one-stop destination for shopping for all the Jaipur items. The bazaar has products ranging from accessories to shoes to artificial jewelry, brass work, precious stones, and more

🕒 Timings(Opening hours): All Days Of The Week 🗓 Close Day: 10:00 PM

📍 Jantar Mantar, Jaipur

🕒 Duration : 09:30 AM

Have you ever wondered how people in the bygone eras used to measure time or keep track of the movements of heavenly bodies or even predict eclipses? Jantar Mantar holds answers to all these questions. It is an astronomical observatory that traces its origin to 1734. Built by Maharaja Sawai Jai Singh II, this observatory houses nineteen architectural astronomical instruments. The most famous among them is the stone sundial, which is the largest one of its kind in the world. A haven for astronomy enthusiasts, this place is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and definitely deserves to be on your list of tourist attractions to visit in Jaipur in 2 days.

🕒 Timings(Opening hours): All Days Of The Week 🗓 Close Day: 04:30 PM

Remark : Entry Fee: ₹ 50 (Indians); ₹ 200 (Foreign Nationals)

📍 City Palace

☰ Other Facility

Free Wi-Fi

☰ Inclusions

- Transportation: Transfers from one place to another
- Vehicle will be provided based on the itinerary
- All current taxes

☰ Exclusions

- The customer should take care of personal expenses
- Meals apart from those included in the package
- Cost of Train fare/air fare

- Entrance fees

*Terms & Conditions apply.

Urgent Taxis

Call: 8595066033 | 7310651940

Ghaziabad